

Don't Cry For Me

© 2003 Wayne Carroll (BMI)

If I were there, you'd hear me say now please don't cry your heart away if you were here, then you would see you would not cry, don't cry for me

To see the sun much brighter now from where I stand it's all around in light so pure, one day you'll see each step I took on heaven's ground

The journey here, it is not long in just one breath I found my way and those I love, they welcomed me to my new home, don't cry for me

I'll see you soon, just down the lane I promise you, we'll meet again until that day, I know you'll be safe in God's arms, don't cry for me

If you were here, then you would see you would not cry, so don't cry for me
