Verse 1

She carried Amy twenty weeks twenty more she'd see her daughter she'd touch her stomach and talk about all the fun they'd have together but sometimes things don't work out right in spite of hope we lose it all it's in those dark and alone times we get broken in the fall

Chorus

He'll take your broken heart pick up each broken part in His tender hands of love He'll mend the pieces and with the Master's touch of unspoken love He'll wipe away the tears and soon your broken heart will be unbroken

Verse 2

She looks to heaven every night in prayer she talks to Amy and through all these years they still talk about all the fun they'll have together and no matter where she is right now she can hear her Amy's call because you see, their love was never broken after all ## repeat chorus

And soon your broken heart will be unbroken
