

You'll Be There

© 2004, Wayne Carroll (BMI)

Verse 1

You'll be there when I wake up in the morning and hear your voice in the rustle of the wind you'll be there when I whisper how I love you just like before, when each day comes to an end in each moment of each hour you will show that you are here like the fragrance of a flower, I will sense that you are near and you'll be there

Verse 2

You'll be there when I reach across your pillow and thoughts of you help me dream away the night you'll be there when the sun comes up tomorrow just like before, you'll make everything all right and when I think about God's heaven, it has never seemed so near for my heart now beats in heaven, if you listen you can hear 'cause you'll be there

Coda

You'll be there when I see the light of heaven and we'll embrace, like so many times before and we'll know that we'll never have to part now but live forever in the presence of the Lord hand in hand we'll walk together, seeing all there is to see and we'll know the joy of living with our love eternally and of all the joys in heaven, one most often comes to mind the hope that has sustained me, it will be heaven because I'll find that you'll be there...you'll be there
